

The Bribery Act 2010 – Statement from the Chief Executive Officer

The Bribery Act 2010 came into force on 1st July 2011 introducing a corporate offence for organisations that fail to prevent bribery and corruption by people working on behalf of the business.

At EnServe Group Limited we pride ourselves on our excellent reputation for the way in which we conduct our business based upon strong values, especially that of integrity.

We will not tolerate bribery in our Company or in those with whom we choose to undertake business.

We are fully committed to a number of measures to comply with the Bribery Act and to ensure we carry out our activities in an honest and ethical manner.

Adopting the principles set out in the Government guidance relating to the Act, we have introduced a number of internal policies and procedures to prevent the risk of bribery and corruption both within our organisation and among our clients, partners, suppliers, contractors, sub-contractors and any other third party associated with EnServe Group Limited.
